Catarina Stichini has been in charge of the Portuguese Language Center/Instituto Camões (CLP/IC) at Stockholm University since September 2007. Instituto Camões is the Portuguese implementing agency for external cultural and educational policy. It operates under the responsibility of the Ministry of the Foreign Affairs and its purpose is to promote Portuguese culture and language abroad.

Besides working as a Portuguese Lecturer (Text, Oral Expression and Phonetics), Catarina Stichini also teaches distance courses. She has recently started using MONDO, an internet platform provided by Stockholm University, in her courses. Alongside with her work at University, she organizes academic and cultural activities both at the CLP/IC and with Portugal Embassy.

Catarina Stichini graduated in English and German Studies from Lisbon University in 1994. In 1997 she finished a Post-graduate degree in Pedagogy. She has worked as an EFL, GFL and PFL teacher for over 13 years in Portugal, Chile and Sweden. She is currently doing a masters program in Portuguese Linguistics at Stockholm University.
