Elisabetta Delle Donne is the president of Pixel an education and training institution, based in Florence (Italy), accredited by the Italian Ministry of Education and with a certified quality system according to the UNI EN ISO 9001:2000 standard.

Elisabetta Delle Donne graduated in Political Sciences – International Affairs from the University of Florence in 1993. She started working in the field of transnational cooperation funded by the European Commission a few months after her University graduation.

At the beginning of 1999 she created Pixel and since then she has been its president. She coordinates the Pixel staff of 15 full time project coordinators and administrative employees and about 100 external consultants who collaborate with them on specific projects.

So far Elisabetta Delle Donne has been involved as project planner and/or manager in more than 70 projects funded by the European Commission mostly in the field of education and training and has developed partnerships with more than 400 bodies, including universities, public authorities, training organisations, schools, research centres etc. operating throughout Europe.

Elisabetta Delle Donne is also the main trainer in the international seminar "European Project Planning and Management" which has now reached its 21st Edition.
