

Elen Laanemaa

Institution: Estonian Academy of Security
Sciences
Address: Kase 61
Postal Code: 12012 Tallinn
Country: Estonia

Tel: +372 696 5644
Fax: +372 696 5343
Email: elen.laanemaa@sisekaitse.ee
Web: <http://www.sisekaitse.ee>

Elen Laanemaa is a lecturer of the English language at the Language Centre of the Estonian Academy of Security Sciences, which is based in Tallinn. It is a state institution, providing professional education for civil servants belonging in the area of government under the Estonian Ministry of the Interior.

Elen Laanemaa has graduated in the philology of the English Language and as a teacher of German from Tallinn University. In August, 2010 she graduated in school management from Tartu University and received MA degree. She started working as an English teacher in 1992. She has been working at the Academy as a lecturer of English for 13 years. Since the beginning of 2010 she is also acting as an e-learning coordinator at the Academy by supported and helping colleagues to create quality online materials using different media and technologies.

She is a certified teacher-trainer and has carried out trainings for the staff at the Language centre. Elen Laanemaa has also contributed in the process of starting mentoring in the institution.

Since 2002 she has focused on teaching ESP in the field of border guard, corrections, rescue and police. She has also experience in teaching military personnel. She has had a long cooperation with Citizenship and Migration Board teaching its officials and compiling ESP teaching materials.

She is involved in compiling online Police-Rescue Dictionary.