

Antonio Giordano

Assistant Project Manager

Antonio obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Linguistic Intermediation for the European Union at the University of Bari in 2006. Following this, he obtained the Master's Degree in Foreign Languages for the International Cooperation at the University "G. D'Annunzio" of Chieti-Pescara in 2008.

In 2009, he attended the European Public Relations MBA organized by Ateneo Impresa – Business School of Rome.

From 2007 to 2008 Antonio worked as Italian language assistant in France. From 2009 to 2011 he worked for an online press agency focusing on Italian people living abroad.

From 2012 he has been working at Pixel as Assistant Project Manager.

At Pixel, Antonio is currently in charge of supporting the coordination of European projects in the fields of quality in language education, history of economics thought, justice, marketing.

Antonio is also responsible for the organization of European Mobility Initiatives addressed to teachers, experts, students from all over Europe. The mobility initiatives he organized focused on vocational education and training, tourism and eno-gastronomy, adult education.

Antonio is the tutor of the International master "European project planning and management", which reached its third edition. Antonio maintains the contacts with all the trainers involved in the master course and provides support and information to the students involved. Antonio is also in charge of the organization of the international internships for the master students.

Antonio is also social media manager and edits the online contents of Pixel website. Antonio is also in charge of the Pixel Facebook and Twitter pages as well as of the social media pages of some of the current European projects coordinated by Pixel.