

Cristina Ricci

Administrative Manager

Cristina has a diploma as Accounting Analyst.

From 1974 to 1978 she worked in a law firm in Florence, dealing with debt collection practices. From 1979 to 1984 she worked in a Tuscany Industry, part of a multinational group, in the administration and accounting department.

From 1984 she worked as freelance in the field of administration working with several accounting firms.

From 1993 to 1999 she was employed by a consortium of universities and enterprises, officially recognized by the European Union. She was in charge of administrative book keeping, banks, financial statements etc. She was responsible for financial administration of European projects and projects funded by the European Social Fund by addressing the budgeting and financial reports.

Cristina works at Pixel from 2000. She is the administrative manager. She is in charge of budget planning, financial management and reporting, management of contacts with the banks. Cristina is also in charge, in cooperation with external consultants of the production of the yearly balance.

She is also in charge of the personnel administrative management and contracts.

